DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9, drawn to a highly lubricious hydrophilic coating composition, classified in class 424, subclass 78.03.
 - II. Claims 10-13, drawn to a method for coating a medical device, classified in class 604, subclass 11.
 - III. Claims 14-16, drawn to a coated medical device, classified in class 600, subclass 435.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I, II and III are unrelated because they are capable of supporting different patents within the art. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Invention I differs from inventions II and III in that invention I is directed to coating composition while inventions II and III are directed to a method of coating a medical device and a coated medical device respectively and the coating composition can bind pharmaceutically active agents.

Invention II differs from invention III in that the coated medical device can be coated by a process other than the process in invention II where the medical device can first be coated with the hydrophilic coating composition, drying the coated device, then coating with a coating composition comprising the antibiotic or anti-thrombogenic drug.

Art Unit: 1615

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: Coating compositions that contain different agents and different methods of coating the medical device.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, highly lubricious hydrophilic coating composition is generic.

If applicants elect Group I, applicants must further elect antithrombotic drug or antibiotic drug or dye.

If applicants elect Group II, applicants must further elect a method of applying the coating from the method of dipping and airless spraying.

If applicants elect Group III, applicants must further elect antithrombotic drug, antibiotic drug or dye.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1615

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

4. A telephone call was made to Thomas R. Vigil on 03/24/03 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. If applicants desire additional components, examiner respectfully requests that applicants specifically name or completely name additional components. Claims containing additional components that are not specifically named or completely named will be considered as non-elected claims.
